Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy

As of right now, only two things that I'm aware of may require some babysitting:

1. If the Post-Dispatch runs Karl's guest op-ed piece on West Lake, please be sure to circulate a link/text to him and Senior Staff ASAP. Also be sure to copy in Toni Castro, as she needs to repost a link to social media.

And

2. I've returned a "press" call to Janine Molloff, a stringer correspondent/blogger for UK Progressive in St. Louis. She has questions about the "subsurface fire" on Sunday at West Lake Landfill, and if she doesn't get back with me before I leave today, she may be calling one or more of you. (It was a SURFACE fire, and a small one, and it was quickly handled by Republic Services under MDNR oversight. EPA had an OSC on site at the time, and we took photos and monitored the situation, but it was not an issue for our response. Happened in SW corner of the Bridgeton Landfill, which is far away from rad material at WL. All of this needs to be pointed out to Ms. Molloff.) As an aside, FYI, Ms. Molloff attended the public meeting at Pattonville High School and screamed a rant at Karl from the audience after introducing herself as a "journalist." Proceed with caution. Her number is
